City of Huntington Beach, et al.; OCSC Case No.: 30-2024-01435113.

CITY COUNCIL MEMBER COMMENTS (2-Minute Time Limit)

Mayor McKeon announced that per Municipal Code Section 3.03.100 and City Charter Section 13, the Request for Proposal (RFP) process is not required for Administrative Item #22 (26-324) regarding a professional services contract between the City of Huntington Beach and Wolffhaus. He added that Council, due to expressed community concerns, has withdrawn this item in order to implement the RFP process. He continued to describe the criteria that will be required for the RFP process, noted that he believes Wolffhaus is the premier provider of Brand, Media, Press and Digital Ecosystem Comprehensive Audit, Marketing, and Assessment Services, and the need to move quickly. Mayor McKeon also clarified that hotels, not the City of Huntington Beach, pay Visit HB.

Councilman Kennedy noted that although the RFP process provides transparency during a vendor selection process, it does not ensure quality of work, on-time project completion or unequivocal success.

Councilman Gruel addressed the issue of recent communications relayed to him regarding various landscaping concerns and noted that there was a delay in finalizing the new landscape maintenance contract which resulted in a gap in service. Landscape crews are now in the field and Public Works expects everything will be cleaned up within the next four weeks.

Councilman Williams shared his Easter message and noted that he understands that not everyone agrees with him.

Councilman Burns, referencing Withdrawn Administrative Item #22 (26-324), noted it is not unusual for organizations to sole source contracts. He acknowledged the City's Boards, Commissions and Committees and thanked those serving for utilizing their expertise to help Councilmembers be more quickly informed and helping to make timely decisions.
