I view the two petitions in question as part of the overall attempt to keep inappropriate adult sexual material in the children's section of our library. For some reason, what used to be considered criminal is now somehow supposed to be praiseworthy.

I commend the Council and Gracey Van Der Mark for standing against this evil. No one should think this has anything to do with book banning or privatizing the library when it is all about pushing inappropriate adult sexual material on children.

Whatever action you take on the petitions, I urge you to continue focusing on the true issue and fighting for what is right, remembering that we must all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
