

Narrative of the Proposed Use (Kiwami Ramen)

5143/5145 Warner Avenue

Kiwami Ramen mainly sells Japanese Cuisine. It is open daily from 11AM to 1AM. There are 12 employees in total, including three chefs and nine waiters, working in 2 shifts. The dining area is 2026 square foot and can accommodate 47 people for dining at the same time. The purpose of our application for a public hearing is to provide customers with alcohol beverages in the future. Because some Japanese food is raw and fried, beer and sake can make the food more delicious.

Huntington Beach is the 4th largest city in Orange County. It is also a very popular seaside city in Los Angeles. Huntington Beach is also a diverse city which has different ethnic groups and cultures. The population mixed of White, Spanish, Asian and Native Americans. Therefore, providing food along with alcohol beverage at the same time is convenient for our customers and adds to the deliciousness of the food.

Our store is surrounded by commercials and residents. There is a supermarket and many small stores are scattered in four directions of our shop. We hope our store can bring better food and give our neighbors more choices to dine.
