

Be Well OC in Huntington Beach: One Year Update

Marshall Moncrief, CEO

The Problem

Increased crises

Law enforcement and EMS
are default response

Hospitals and jails are default destination

SUPPLEMENTAL COMMUNICATION

Meeting Date: 9/20/2022

Agenda Item No.: # 13 (22-789)

The Solution

Huntington Beach

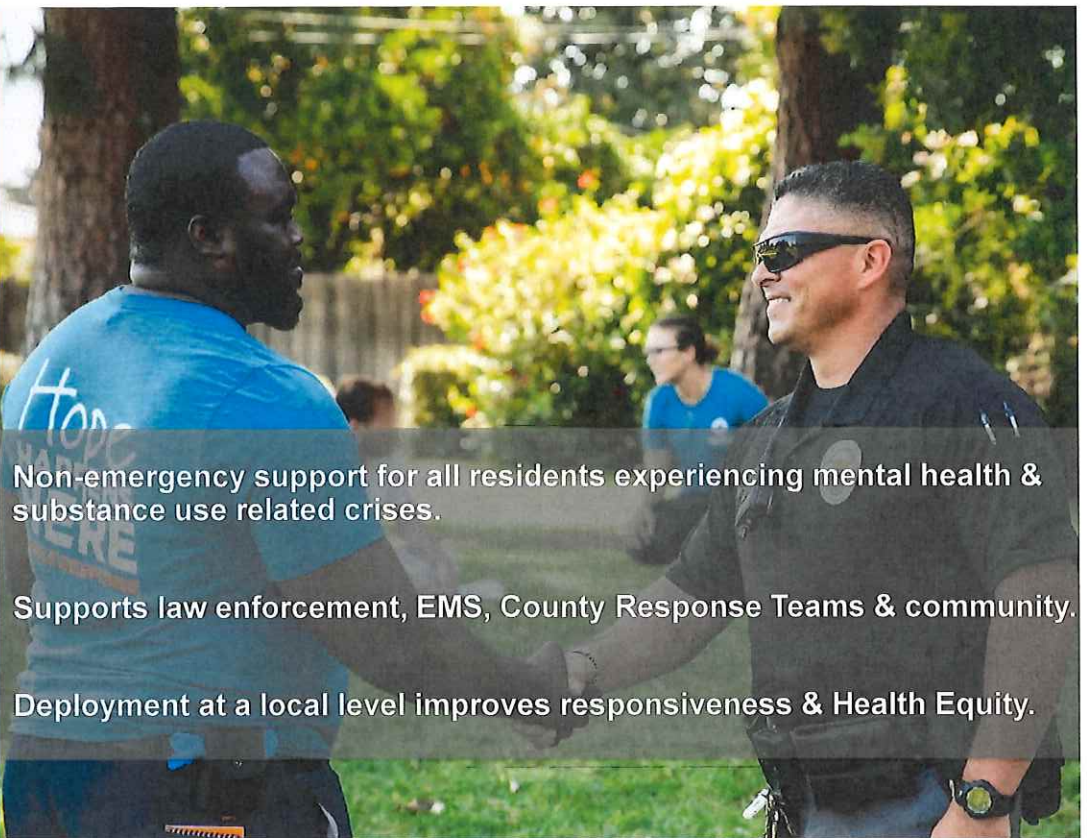

First City To Launch Mobile Response

Be Well Mobile Response in Huntington Beach

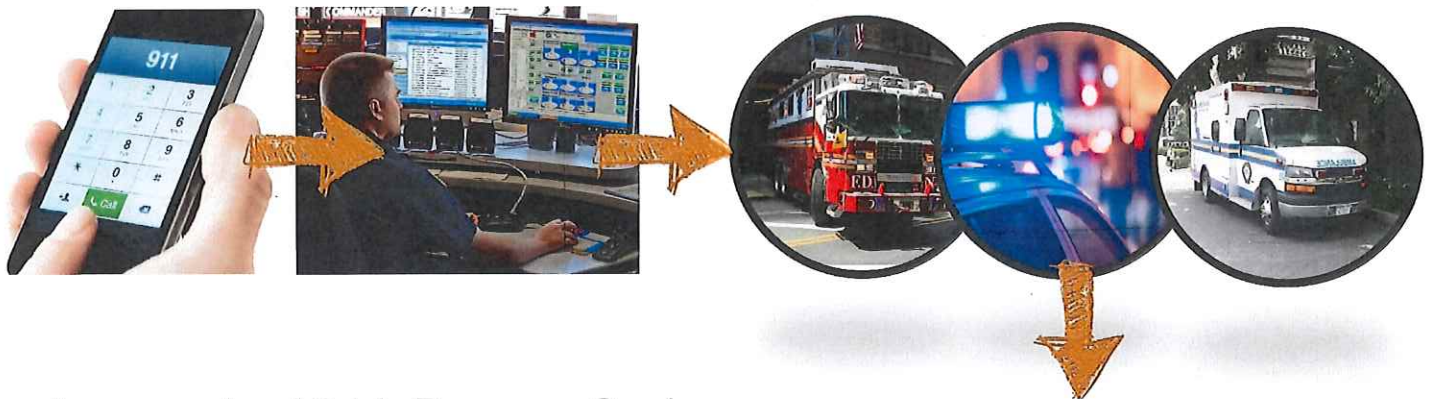

ORANGE COUNTY

Non-emergency support for all residents experiencing mental health & substance use related crises.

Supports law enforcement, EMS, County Response Teams & community.

Deployment at a local level improves responsiveness & Health Equity.

Increases local Crisis Response Services that optimizes deployment of first responders

CONTACTS THIS MONTH: 324

TOTAL CONTACTS: 2,786

SINCE PROGRAM INCEPTION IN AUGUST 2021

Contacts Per Month
Aug'21 thru Aug'22

Average Time to Scene:
16 minutes

Average Time on Scene: 49 minutes

Housed & Unhoused = Whole Community Service

Lessons Learned & Looking Ahead

Hope
HAPPENS HERE

Hope
HAPPENS
HERE

For More Information:

Jason Austin

Jaustin@hbpd.org

Marshall Moncrief

Marshall.moncrief@mind-oc.org