

Project Narrative

A section of the slope along the existing bike path, between the Dog Beach Blufftop parking lots, has experienced slope failure. The City plans to remediate the failed area. Remediation to include: Removal of failed soil and debris, reconstruction of slope with geogrid for slope stabilization, installation of geojute erosion control fabric, drought resistant landscaping, installation of temporary irrigation system, and reconstruction of bike path. Final appearance to have a natural look.