COMMENTS & ADDITIONAL NOTES

Abandoned church on Nichols and Warner, I am with a non profit organization called Red Alert Global Task Force, we aid in special needs search and rescue. We, and along with anybody else who would like to volunteer or donate their time or supplies needed would like to restore the church as a historical landmark, but in addition with all the property to keep and fix what is fixable but also add and build a place thats an all in one help location station. were people in need can go to fix their problems that lead them to homelessness, drug use, committing crimes, broken families, hunger. We have the time and can relate to several of these issues and know its a big problem out there please let us help and give us a chance to use that property to do so. thank you respectfully, Cassandra

Good morning, Chris.

I am happy to share your communication with the City Council; however, Wintersburg is not scheduled for discussion on tonight's agenda so this email will technically not be considered a supplemental communication.

Re: Wintersburg

Members of city council:

First, thank you for removing all mention of the Historic Wintersburg Task Force from the city's web site. As many in the city had become aware, the task force in its approx. 7 years had achieved none of its goals, had not had a meeting in more than one and half years, and perhaps most importantly was helmed by someone whose attacks on citizens for disagreeing with her, general lack of transparency, and consistently unprofessional behavior clearly made her unfit for any city post. I recently filed a formal complaint with council against this person, task force chair Mary Urashima, and I would like to know if there will be a formal announcement of the disintegration of the task force and perhaps even a public admonishment of Ms. Urashima for the behavior of hers cited previously, which clearly seemed to violate the city code of ethics/conduct for all task force members. I would also like to know if the apparent disintegration of the task force required a vote of the council and, if, so, what the vote was.

Respectfully,

Chris Epting
