ADMINISTRATIVE ITEMS

1. 2020/21 4th of July Celebration Event Options Evaluation – The Board will review the February 23, 2021 Special Meeting Item #2: 2020/21 Event Options Evaluation to solidify the recommendation to be presented to City Council at their March, 15, 2021 meeting.

Recommended Action: Provide the City of Huntington Beach City Council with Options for presenting the 2021 Fourth of July Celebration:

Option A: Plan a modified 4th of July Celebration based on known COVID-19 guidelines at this time. This model would include a neighborhood parade, an expanded Pier Festival with room for additional vendors, and a modified 4th of July Run at Central Park with staggered start times over multiple days and a virtual component for those who wish to compete on their own. There is no financial backstop needed from the City under Option A. The hope is that the expanded festival and modified run will offset any costs and help bring in revenue to use for next year's celebration.

Option B: Contains all elements of Option A (neighborhood parade, pier festival, run) but includes the addition of a fireworks display at Pier Plaza. Since a non-refundable, 50% deposit is due to the fireworks vendor at the time of booking, this option would require the City to provide a financial backstop up to $25,000 for the fireworks show in the event that such displays are not allowed on the 4th of July.

Alternative Action:

Do not approve Options A or B and direct staff accordingly.
