What is your favorite work of public art in Huntington Beach?

Answered: 427 Skipped: 128

1. Surfboard at the beach
2. Surfer sculpture.
3. Surfing sculpture
4. Ultimate Challenge (of the public art that is on display)
5. Surfer at the beach "the ultimate challenge "
6. Surfboard on Goldenwest welcome to Huntington.
7. The dumpsters and utility boxes.
8. Surfboard Sculptures by Orange Coast Memorial Health Care Facilities on Beach Boulevard
9. The 'Huntington Beach' signs as you are entering the city limits.
10. tile mural at entrance to pier
11. The Pier
12. Surfer at the entrance to beach parking
13. The wave at 5th & PCH
14. The Surfer Statue
15. Naked surfer
16. The works at the civil center
17. The surfer statue on pch/Huntington street
18. The sculptures on Beach Blvd of the bronze couple doing acrobats, in front of the Total Wines store. Beautiful!
19. Pier Plaza Tiled Mural 100 Years of HB History Mural inside HB Auditorium
20. Encyclopedia story in front of Z pizza
21. surf statue
22. I like how they painted some sidewalk utility boxes and some of the large trash containers. I like the surfer statue by the beach parking lot, I think on Beach & PCH. The surfer hall of fame plaques that are in the sidewalk by Jacks Shop are nice also. I live by John Baca Park, it has a nice concrete dedication 'monument' to a Viet Nam hero. I appreciate those who made sacrifices for us. I would like to see more 'monuments' like this for HB heroes, military, HBFD, HBPD.
23. Surfer at the beach
24. I don't have one
25. The handball walls at Peterson Elementary
26. Duke statue and the wave statue
27. It was the Dwyer building but they painted over it ;o(
28. bronze surfer
29. I like murals and free standing sculptures that tie in the history of our beautiful city.
30. Murals on Main Street. Walkway between buildings.
31. The Shorebirds at the Civic Center.
32. I love the tile art at the city beach by Kokomo's and the art by the guard station on the boardwalk too. Also all the utility boxes etc
33. I don't have a favorite yet.
34. Honestly, I am unaware of art works specifically in HB. I would love to know more and be supportive to our various artists. We need to see beautiful, colorful, uplifting pieces of art

35. In my opinion, HB lacks "good" public art. I enjoy the old craftsman houses downtown, some old churches (across from Ocean View HS), the surfer statue, and the HB public library with its mid century modern design. Otherwise most of the the artwork in HB is generic and touristy.
36. Duke Kahanamoku with surfboard on Main Street.
37. Aerial views people on our beautiful golden sand, mixtures of the waves breaking on the sand creating a mixture of blue and gold, white wash setting in, and deep blue waters.
38. I like the mosaic on the boardwalk by the lifeguard facility. Absolutely gorgeous! Has always been one of my faves! Love our naked surfer statue as well.
39. pelican sculptures
40. The surfboard installation near beach/lifeguard headquarters. Around PCH & 1st.
41. The mural in the HBUHSD Auditorium showing the history of Huntington Beach and the old green surfer sculpture (near PCH & I believe maybe Beach Blvd.)? I loved the old tile murals at the Old SeaCliff Shopping Center and the metal pelicans, etc.
42. Steel light wave
43. I've always been fond of the surfer on Beach and PCH. I actually can't really think of any other art tho.
44. the art paintings on electrical boxes
45. The naked surfer on pch and Huntington st.
46. Art work on utility boxes
47. I like the Walkway Butterfly Mural and park on Graham as my favorite.
48. none
49. Duke at HSS
50. I am a nearby resident in Fountain Valley for 32 years and a resident of HB. prior to that. I'm a member of the HB Art Center I like the surfer on the wave, and know of no other art forms in HB,
51. Surfer
52. ???
53. Do not have favorite, but love Melissa Murphy's and Jody Williams' work.

62. Ties between Henry Huntington mural by Evan Rossell off Fifth Street and the tile mural at the Community Center in Sunset Beach
63. murals, fine art installations , sculpture
64. none.
65. The surfer statue at the entrance of state beach. The digital display on the side of Pasea Hotel. The Huntington Beach signs as you enter the city at PCH: Golden West; etc. The Pacific City Apts sculptures in their park area. The upside-down snorkeler statue, by Kokomos.
66. Murals
67. Tile mural on the pier plaza
68. mosaics art at the beach

69. paintings , sculpture and murals
70. The Duke statue at Main & PCH and the surfer statue at PCH and Beach Blvd.
71. Huntington Beach Art Center
72. There are over 40 pieces, I like most of them. We need more community awareness as to location and meaning of these pieces.
73. statue of David Nueva, always liked the pelicans that used to be around city hall
74. The water feature in the Huntington Central Library
75. the Surfer on PCH
76. Shows at the Art Center
77. The iconic surfer on PCH
78. Surfer at Beach and PCH
79. Waterline
80. Community Mosaics down by main lifeguard tower. Including benches
81. Sculptures at Bella Terra
82. the surfer by the pier
83. Surfer statue
84. No favorite
85. The upside down body surfer.
86. Sculpture on beach and pch of surfing

95. Sculpture of surfer at the corner of Beach and PCH.
96. I like the Statue of the Surfer and surfboard on a wave.
97. mosaic murals on the beach
98. Architecture, not specific art pieces
99. Art Project #1, Convergence, Elan Sea Foam, Family Portrait, Nautical Eclipse, Poets Table, Wall Mural (Lowe's), Surfing USA, Untitled (Geoff McFetridge)
100. The surfer Down on PCH ... and the murals on business buildings.
101. Tile work at Safety Plaza adjacent to the Junior Guards offices
102. Dumpster art
103. The painted dumpsters !
104. The life size surfer at the beach park.
105. Beach and PCH statue of Duke
106. ART Sign in HB Art Center window
107. There isn't very much public art in town; I can think of the surfer statue at Huntington State Beach on PCH.

108. The surfer statue at Main and PCH
109. The Surfer Statue
110. Location 21042 Pacific City Circle/Between 1st Street and Huntington Street Artist: Frank Bauer Year Created: 2015 Developer: UDR Description Mosaic Art on Seat Wall Benches. The project is currently under construction and is located in the front entrance to the residences.
111. Love it all - no favorite.
112. Tiles on wall in pier plaza
113. Statues by Starbucks on Beach. The wave on 5th and the classic birds at city hall. The mosaic on the beach is great with the person standing on their head.
114. The butterfly sculpture in the butterfly park on Graham St near the golf course.
115. I enjoy the art exhibitions in the Art Center of Huntington Beach, CA.
116. surfer bronze on PCH
117. There's public art?
118. I don't have one.
119. Statue at PCH and Huntington street
120. Duke's statue downtown.
121. Mosaic tile art in the concrete at the beach, and Central library building, and the senior center is beautiful.
122. Vintage cars
123. Duke
124. The giant surf board and the rolling greens at Bella terra
125. Surfer
126. The Waterline Wave Sculpture and pier piling with barnacles. But I really like all the art in HB (i.e., Duke in front of HSS, Painted Utility Boxes at PCH and Main, etc.)
127. The mural in the alley between 5th and Main.
128. Surfboard stonehenge at PCH and Beach
129. Nothing in particular
130. Duke Kahanamoku and tile mural
131. Statues by the boardwalk / ocean
132. Duke statue
133. I don't think I can even think of one. Do the surfboard shaped HB signs on the way into the city count?
134. LOVE the surfer statue on PCH. We like the decorated trash cans and power boxes.
135. Ultimate challenge statue
136. Mural along the alley, behind Jack's building on Main Street.
137. Duke with his surf board in front of HSS, downtown at PCH & Main Street.
138. Surf statue on city beach of a wave
139. The surfer sculpture of the entrance of city beach parking.
140. Pier plaza
141. Don't have one
142. Pelicans at City Hall
143. Bronze of "Duke" on pier
144. N/A
145. Duke Kahanamoku statue

146. The utility boxes
147. The pier
148. Electrical box on main and PCH.
149. Don't have a favorite.
150. All of it
151. City hall tile murals
152. The naked surfer statue
153. The surfer at the corner of PCH and Beach Blvd
154. Urban Forest, the murals around the downtown/pier on all the trash cans and utility boxes, etc. The surfboard bike racks, the fun playgrounds for the kids.
155. Beach Play at 1st Street
156. Streets on 5th
157. I enjoy the surfing statues downtown and at the beach. Also love the tiles that have been painted and are at various locations around HB. I don't mind seeing painted garbage cans and/or utility boxes-makes the city look nice.
158. HB Central Park trees and flowers
159. Like the surfer dude on pch
160. The flying pelicans that used to be at Seacliff but are now spread around the city, like at City Hall & Police Dept. on Yorktown.
161. Duke Kahanamoku statue at PCH and Main Street. Utility box and dumpster art is a close second.
162. The naked surfer. I liked the butterfly at Norma Gibbs/Butterfly Park but it was stolen and not replaced.
163. Do we have any, beyond the "wave" sculpture down at the entrance to the beach on PCH?!
164. murals downtown also the new HB signs all around town are really great
165. The decorated receptacles on the pier. Love the contest that was conducted to decorate the bins.
166. The surfer statue at the beach
167. The updated City signs near Goldenwest College, on Adams, on Warner. Also, the iconic surfer at the beach
168. I love the recently painted dumpster art. It's wonderful to see art everywhere you go in HB.
169. Duke Kahanamoku and Butterfly Mural
170. Rescue Plaza
171. I know that it is not really art, but I love the tombstone behind the Arco Station on Springdale and Edinger.
172. Mosaics on the beach (surfboards etc)
173. The remnants from the former outdoor mall at Goldenwest and Yorktown. Some of the artwork is by City Hall and a few other places. I like the mural by the pier. I like the surfer statues by the pier & parking lot
174. The surfer on PCH behind Jack's concession stand.

177. The ceramic tile benches at Golden West College.
178. Sunset Beach Post office beach scene with Catalina in the background
179. The Surfer on PCH
180. The CA bear mural at the beach. And love the wings around town

181. A picture on the interior lobby wall of the Main Promenade Parking Structure at 200 Main St. The photo is a nice splash of color in an otherwise drab location. And the photographer is a City Employee, even better.
182. The surfer on the wave on PCH
183. Upside down surfer/mermaid statue near concessions on the beach
184. Duke Sculpture and Surf city with the surfboards
185. Giant surfboard at the Surf Museum.
186. Street art by MAD STEEZE next to Perqs.
187. Surfer statue by the pier
188. I like the statue of Duke downtown and the other big one of a surfer on a wave but I would also like to see additional works that might relate to the ocean and other subjects too.
189. The surfer at the Beach Blvd entrance to City Beach
190. It has yet to be created.
191. Surfer statue on PCH
192. Secret Garden in Huntington Beach Central Park
193. Surfer at PCH and Beach
194. I am most familiar with the 2 sculptures that I see near the beach. I did not even know about some of the others but will now try to see them.
195. The butterfly mural
196. I like the murals downtown by local artists.
197. Do not have a favorite, not really a fan of what I am seeing.
198. The surfer statue on PCH
199. To be honest, I haven't really noticed any in this town. I guess the surfer sculpture at the beach on PCH.
200. Surfer statue at Huntington and PCH.
201. Mosaics near the beach.
202. I love all the paintings done on the electrical boxes in downtown. I also love the surfer statues, especially duke.
203. Surfer statue downtown
204. Don't know
205. Ocean themed dumpsters and electric boxes
206. Surfer statue
207. I don't have one, but I know we can do better.
208. The Duke
209. Duke K
210. Painted trash cans and electrical boxes.
211. Dive in
212. The mosaic bench along the boardwalk and the surfboards with the flags on them.

222. The iconic surfer sculptures
223. Statue of surfer on his board near PCH and Beach Blvd.
224. The artwork on the dumpsters, electrical boxes and the wave benches on Coast Highway. The mosaics at City Hall are nice as well.
225. Tile Art at Beach , sculpture near central library, pelican sculpture near city council, butterfly garden in Central Park , Shipley nature center garden design as a " wilderness park"
226. The Mosaics at Rescue Plaza and other places along the beach.
227. the mural in the alley between Perqs and Jacks
228. Surf Walk of fame on Main Street and the phases of HB timeline from indigenous peoples to beach swimmers near Rubios on Goldenwest and Garfield.
229. The mosaic tile art on City Hall and Police buildings.
230. 1. Surfer statue near lifeguard station 2. Seagulls
231. the paintings on trash cans
232. Would have to say the iconic "Ultimate Challenge" sculpture but I also really like the pebble mosaic at the access ramp by the lifeguard station. Enjoy that you are immersed in the art rather than just looking at it.
233. Surfer statue. I actually like Pasea neon wall.
234. I don't have one. Though I enjoy some of the dumpsters and electric panels.
235. Public Exhibitions
236. The painted dumpsters
237. The surfer statue at the beach. Also liked the military honor banners down Main Street.
238. The bird scenes left from the old Sea Cliff shopping center.
239. Surfer at PCH and Beach Blvd
240. I really like to murals on utility boxes, etc.
241. murals
242. The metal sea bird sculptures that are now at City Hall/Police Station on Main Street
243. HB surfer? I can't think of any specific art other than in the library area and all the beautiful tile art in the civic center. This seems to be a very contentious thing in HB bc it is so personal and subjective. I think it would be better to have temporary art displays in public areas like a moving art exhibit.
244. Sculptures at the Beach
245. I guess it would be the pier.
246. The Jesus Lives on the side of the old church inn Warner. I am SO sad someone spray painted a cross on it recently; it just doesn't match.
247. Steel Light Wave
248. Bronze surfer statue at state beach entrance, the art work covering electrical boxes & trash cans & fountains & murals downtown.
249. The dumpsters (really)
250. The trash cans were fun....the art center building was decorated nicely, but truthfully I have not spent any time downtown for over a month - hospital stay.
251. Duke statue downtown
252. the surfer

253. none
254. The surfing sculpture when you enter the state beach
255. There are many, but really like the utility boxes that are painted.
256. Surfer on the beach
257. Surfer statue on pch
258. Naked Surfer
259. Surfer statue at PCH and Huntington.
260. None, really. We could use some!!
261. Do not think there is much good art in the city
262. Duke K. in front of Surf n Sport
263. Statue by beach
264. Dancing Lady at the library
265. Naked surfer
266. Pizza wings
267. The surfer riding the wave on pch.
268. sculpture at pier
269. The wave bus stops on PCH in downtown huntington beach
270. Children artwork

276. Statues
277. Surfer sculpture at the beach
278. naked surfer
279. Mural near the bike path
280. All art!
281. Huntington Pier
282. Pelicans at city hall
283. Don't have one.
284. The Surfer statue at the beach.
285. Can't choose between 1. The sculpture of children playing on the southeast corner of Beach and Atlanta next to Starbuck's or 2. The brass/copper windmill spheres on either side of Ellis and Edwards in front of Seagate.
286. Surfer art like surfer statue and mosaic surf boards
287. Surfer on board at the beach. Pierside Plaza mosaic. Pelicans and gulls salvaged from the old shopping center at Yorktown and Golden West, some of which are now at City Hall/Police on Main.
288. Surfer statue at the beach
289. the bronze surfer on PCH close to Beach blvd
290. The Surfer
291. The surfer statue down by main street b/c it is done well and represents the city.

292. Love the surfer sculpture at the beach but also love the mural on the Walmart on beach blvd
293. I like the mural by the grass by the pier
294. Duke statue
295. The dolphins at Harbor mall.
296. The mural on main street (downtown) behind Jamba Juice
297. I enjoy the tile bird murals at City Hall, moved years ago from Seaciff. The surfer statue at the beach is nice as well and the water gardens outside of the main library.
298. I like the trash bins and electrical boxes, they make a very boring part of the city a little happier.
299. Sculptures near the beach
300. the surfer statue (with the wave) on the beach
301. The "naked surfer" statue on PCH
302. How about just on store windows during the holidays or for the seasons. I rather not see it out and about on buildings, trash bins, or utility boxes or anything else it doesn't belong on. It starts to look trashy.
303. Statue of Duke Kahanamoku at Main and PCH (if only because I pass it frequently & can't think of many others off hand)
304. PCH and Main - Surf statue and sidewalk surf stars
305. Statue of the surfer on PCH / Beach
306. The rock art octopus on the beach at main street
307. the seagulls and murals at civic center that used to be at seaciff mall
308. Surfer statue
309. Surfer riding wave at State Beach.
310. Tony DeLap in Target Loy off Adams and Brookhurst
311. The surfer sculpture & the artwork on the boardwalk.
312. Murals at Dwyer
313. I don't have a favorite
314. Pier
315. I haven't seen all that many, but there's a large metal sculpture outside the Central Library that I like.
316. The duke statue
317. The Library
318. trash receptacles and bike racks
319. I love the swimmer that is head down near the lifeguard HQ at the beach. I also love the painted murals on the electrical panels downtown.
320. In and around Main street, Huntington beach ... actually all along beach board walks - State, Bolsa etc ... :)
321. The surfer statue at entrance to the main parking lot on the beach. second favorite is surfboard and "Welcome to HB" sign on Bolsa Chica boundary line near Bolsa Street. All the "Welcome to HB" Art is beautifully done.
322. SURFER SCULPTURE IN PARKING LOT ON PCH
323. Surfer on wave at the beach. Free standing sculpture Also appreciate that you acknowledge our men and women that serve in the military by placing banners on Main Street. Love concert in the park series.
324. The surfer at the entrance to the City Beach.
325. painted dumpsters

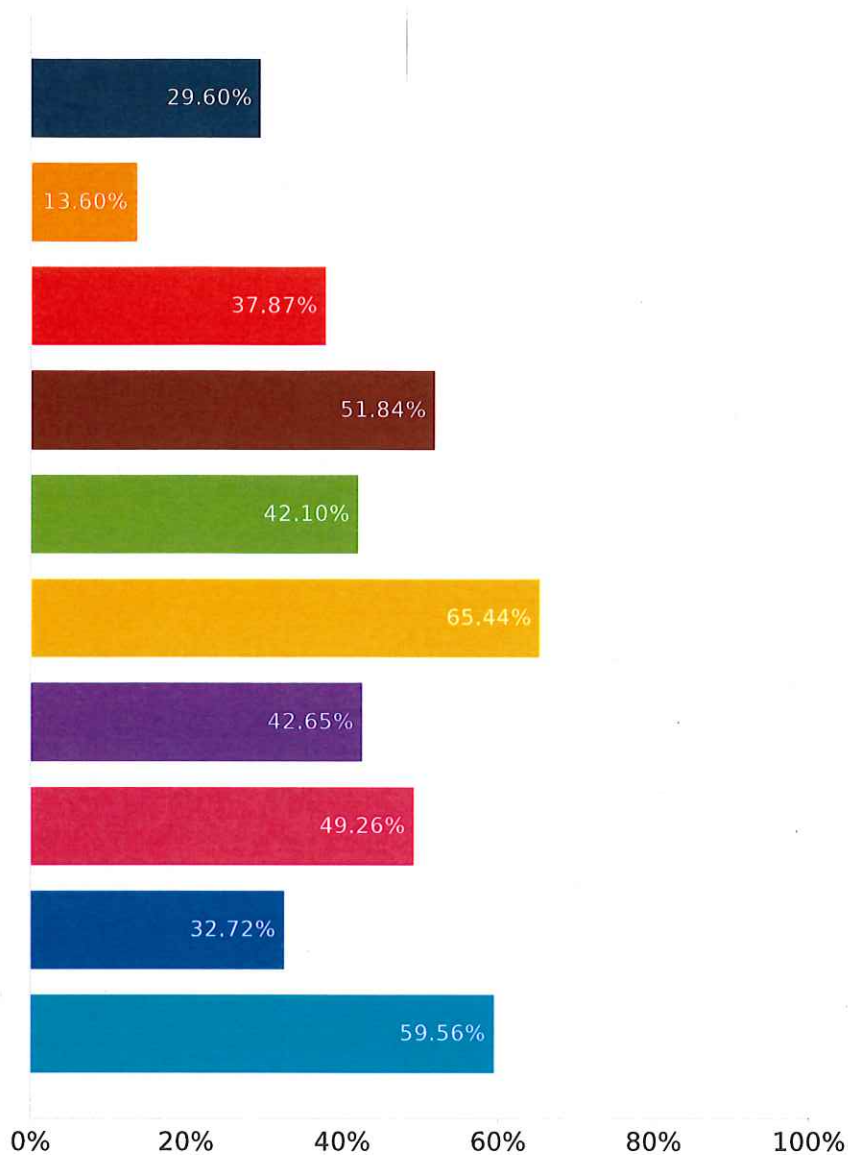

326. PCH Surfer; HSS Duke
327. The beach itself

330. The statues at the beach entrances
331. The bird art moved from Seacliff Shopping Center.
332. Ocean mural along the bike path Upside down mermaid along the bike path Surfer on board at beach entrance
333. Not aware of any
334. The dumpster art and the power box art
335. Surfer statue
336. The lady on her head down on the beach near first street.
337. Not sure. I can't think of anything because HB is really lacking in this area.
338. Mosaic mural at pier, pelicans at City Hall, welcome signs
339. Boy on surf board on PCH.
340. I like the pairings that were unexpectedly put up to beautify the construction walls on Main Street across from Starbucks.
341. The sand sculptures in front of Rubios on the corner of Goldenwest & Garfield depicting children & dolphin at the seaside.
342. Mosaic mural near the Huntington Beach pier.
343. The surfer down on PCH
344. The beautiful seashell poem etched on the sidewalk by pch/ beach Blvd off bike path. I've been waiting to ask this. I have many photos to share. I would love to see it vibrant again.
345. The old dingy blue trash bins that were painted by artists a couple years ago. Great idea!
346. surfers walk of fame wall near the plaza please no weird "modern art"
347. the ultimate challenge and duke statues. the city is otherwise lacking in good public art.
348. Surfer statue at the corner of PCH and Huntington Street
349. The naked surfer on Pacific Coast Highway.
350. The beach
351. The surfer statue by state beach
352. The statues at the library and at the beach

375. I have not seen the public art in HB
376. Surfer statue on PCH
377. The ocean
378. The brightly and festive painted metal covers throughout downtown!
379. Trash cans
380. Butterfly mural at the butterfly park near meadowMark golf course.
381. SURFBOARD MUSEUM
382. Statue of Duke
383. The library (architecture as art)
384. Sculpture of Duke K
385. The metal lady on one leg at the HB Central Library. She used to have two arms, then she had one, and now she has no arms at all. I love her.
386. Surfer statue at PCH and the beach
387. The Pier post at 5th across from the Shorebreak
388. The Surfer
389. The Central Library Building
390. I'm a huge fan of each and every one of the painted utility boxes!
391. The bronze "Dive In" sculpture near Beach Blvd and PCH. It was created by Donna Billick
392. Surfer on Pch
393. The pelican mural at City Hall
394. Surfer sculpture at the Beach Blvd entrance
395. I like all of the painted utility boxes. The surfing statue on PCH and Huntington St. (?) is really cool. The surf board shaped bike racks are cool too.
396. woman running at the library
397. naked surfer
398. Surfer PCH & Beach Blvd
399. beach sculptures
400. The surfer statue at the beach entrance.
401. The utility boxes!
402. Veterans Memorial
403. The piece at Beach/Atlanta

404. The beautiful Historic HBUHSD Lombard Romanesque Architectural 1926 Auditorium, also an OC Historical Site.
405. The metal pelicans at City Hall
406. The Mosaic Baseball Tiles at the fields off Magnolia, the Egret at Pacific Shores and the Sculptural History Wall at The Marketplace on the corner of Goldenwest and Garfield
407. the tile wall at the snack bar area below the junior guard building
408. Surfer statue PCH
409. The art surrounding Junior Lifeguard HQ - colorful (and sentimental).
410. Love the painted trash containers and the mural on the second floor of the theater at HBHS
411. The garden in HB central park
412. I guess it's something I never really notice, sad to say.
413. Check out the two bronze statues and more at the Central Library, inside by kids library.
414. Pacific City Hands Mural
415. Tie between Terram Mare and Wintersburg/Furata Fountain and Courtyard
416. It used to be the mcdonalds mural behind mcdonalds on edinger near springdale but it isn't there anymore.
417. Surfer statue
418. There aren't really many examples of public art in the city. The ones that comes to mind are the surfer at the Magnolia entrance to HB State Park, and the statue of Duke Kahanamoku in downtown HB. There is really no good examples of public art that showcases our community.
419. The wave
420. I don't have one

1. Instill pride in the community
2. Destination pieces that are iconic with HB
3. Inspire Pride for City and Residents
4. Culture
5. Inspire patriotism in community and country.
6. increase property value
7. Environmental themes
8. Remind us of our history & to transport us back in time of the early age of Huntington Beach (Pacific City has this feel with it's signage).
9. In good taste
10. synchronize traffic lights
11. Tourist destinations....
12. It should fix in and add to the environment where it is displayed.
13. historical significance
14. drain on local taxes
15. Kids !!! Conservation
16. Fix the traffic, the roads and signal lights
17. EDUCATION
18. Love
19. We need to make our city more Surf City USA!
20. Just stick to architecture that's oriented to a beach theme. No big wall murals, no painted trash cans or trash dumpsters, no big pieces of wall art.

21. Knowledge, and appreciation of Art!!
22. Humanize an increasingly urban landscape and environment. Remember history without over-guessing what's to come. Bridge generations. Avoid cliches! Refrain from making cartoons of our history and natural beauty.
23. I think all of my checked roles would contribute to those I didn't check!
24. I don't like it, it seems as though it's just graffiti to me. I prefer no art added to our buildings nor any fixed piece of equipment.
25. Night out
26. Peacefulness, Oneness, Spirituality
27. Social equity
28. Get people outdoors for fresh air & exercise
29. Honestly, the city can't afford anything.
30. Be a positive indicator of the kind of community we want to be; to support that which is good, beautiful and true
31. Improve nature and the environment in the city
32. Reflect our unique surf history
33. Please do not put a mural on the Verizon building. It detracts from the beauty of Triangle Park and the library.
34. Raise our game among other cities. Improve our image.
35. Let people enjoy quality art.
36. Please stop - enough already.
37. I believe we should have art that shows the history of our area. Before it was Huntington Beach. People come and visit but really do not know the history.
38. There can never be enough Art in a city, HB could very regularly assign contract work to artists or have public local competitions resulting in a public display, organize art events
39. Local nature/wildlife
40. Branding of surf art
41. Timeless art, not tright murals
42. Pure, unadulterated pleasure that engages the senses and elevates the human condition.
43. Open Performance Art
44. Sculpture that includes water features and/or climb able for adults and children. Photo ops type of sculpture
45. Culture
46. Making neighborhoods attractive reduces crime.
47. Something that champions and embraces the growing Diversity and acceptance ... progressive thinking of HB also the future- our Youth and environmental awareness and health
48. It shouldn't play a role at all. It starts to look horrible when things are covered up all over the place. Instead have galleries for the art work so its not on buildings, trash bins and so on.
49. Please stop! Enough already - some things should just be left alone - just keep some clean open space
50. Expand public consciousness of art
51. Enhance city identity
52. create a focal point
53. Temporary interactive (decorated pianos, exhibits that take you through the beach area like an umbrella maze.
54. None, don't see art as a necessity

55. Encourage diversity and community
56. History and Purpose
57. Display local high school and junior college student's artwork!
58. Let it be fun or bizarre!
59. Connecting families to peers
60. express the culture of the city to the residents and visitors
61. The city should not be spending our money on art while the infrastructure is still in such bad shape.
62. a statement that we believe that all art, visual and performing is critical to our culture and democracy
63. Provide learning opportunities in the arts for youth and every age!

What topics or themes are you most interested in having expressed through public art?

1. art that is site appropriate - there is NO "one theme fits all"
2. City Pride
3. USA Patriotism
4. Dedications to those who sacrificed for community & country: Military, HBFD, HBPD.
5. love to see more sealife,surfboards sculpters,sunsets mosiacs, would love to see the planters on main st look more beachy ?
6. Beach and Ocean theme
7. more music
8. We are a large city with a small town feel acting as a wonderful magnet for tourists - celebrating our surfing history and the time HB was born makes people feel like they learn something when they see these type of art pieces.
9. surfing culture
10. resurface pot hole streets
11. Exploring local artists and their styles/techniques in their work.
12. none
13. Original native people recognition, not just the white story of HB
14. The art of kindness
15. improve infrastructure
16. Huntington Beach History with being Surf City USA City U
17. Artistic vision on the particular artist

- 18.

41. People uniting neutral topics as well as expressing HB residents are part of our world community, southern California wildlife icons and HB lifestyle
42. Really, all of the above
43. Beach vibe
44. Beach related
45. Definitely not "environmental justice" - that gets too political. Art should bring s together not divide.
46. Faith based art
47. Sports- Such as Surfing, Kite Boarding, Paddleboarding, kite Surfing, Canoeing, Kayaking, Sailing, Fishing water sports, city sports. Activities the city provides
48. Environmental Beauty
49. Any limitation on themes (speech content) would violate the First Amendment.
50. Diversity
51. Embracing cultural diversity and acceptance, environmental health and awareness
52. All are good!
53. Only time it should be public is on store windows for holidays or seasons. I don't like it out on buildings, trash bins or anything else. It never looks nice but trashy.
54. Ocean/Surf Theme
55. NONE - just stop!!!!
56. I wouldn't say "social justice,"but maybe "inclusivity." More than just white people.

Choices	Response percent	Response count
Triangle Park	13.65%	74
Huntington Central Park	32.66%	177
Huntington Beach Pier	48.89%	265
Downtown	34.69%	188
Other (Please specify)	16.05%	87

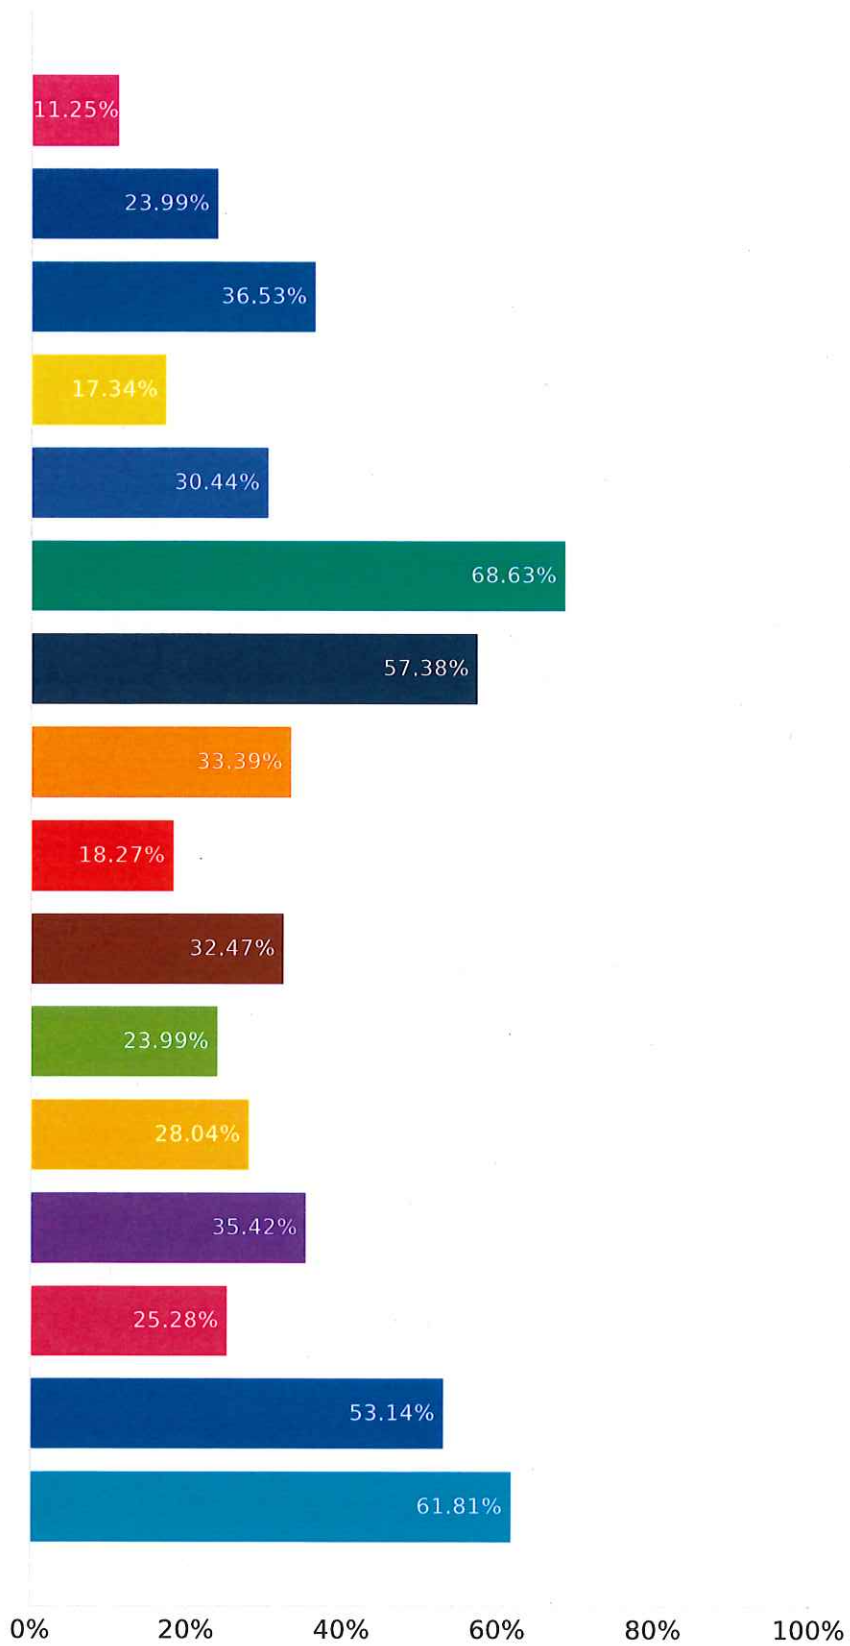

1. NOT IN TRIANGLE PARK!!!
2. wetlands
3. The Pier Plaza. Or the bluffs north of the pier.
4. Away from Downtown which is already too crowded
5. Along the beach path
6. Walkways Along the beach and Trash bins along the beach strand
7. Along the beach but not in a congested area. I like how they put the surfer statue in front of parking lots by Beach & PCH. One work of art there. Maybe go to another beach parking lot and dress up that one! And then the next parking lot
8. I believe re-installing the old, historic archway that used to be over Main Street/PCH would be super cool. Also, perhaps use the downtown library at night for small performing arts theatre?
9. we dont have enough art at our beautiful large parks.
10. HBAC more shows for unknown and local artists
11. repair infrastructure
12. The Bluffs, but close to the pier.
13. a light project in downtown would be wonderful.
14. All of the above!
15. On the beach
16. nowhere
17. Bolsa Chica wetlands
18. The old senior center
19. A HUGE WAVE IN SCULPTURE
20. It is hard to choose...depends on the work
21. Lake Park or Shipley to Sea Trail or 579 Food Court
22. Off of Main & PCH
23. Bottom of the ocean. If its metal, at the local scrap metal recycling yard
24. See next question
25. Somewhere near Main and PCH/Pier Plaza.
26. or on the beach somewhere

27. Nowhere. I'd prefer we don't add any art to our city. It seems to me it's someones personal preference and is being pushed on the public.
28. The Art Gallery on Main ST
29. Near downtown, not near the beach. Draw some of you crowd toward other HB areas/businesses
30. Golden West College
31. Peter Green Park
32. Area that is not so crowded. That way visitors can explore different parts of the city.
33. Loved the arch that used to be at beginning of pier.
34. HB Central Park West/Urban Forest - bridge
35. Bella Terra mall
36. Given your example of Cloud Gate, we have nothing to discuss.
37. beach front that isn't exactly downtown
38. If it's ugly, like the bean, hide it in central park. If it's lovely and inspiring, put it downtown :)
39. Cliffs and pch
40. Maybe have a new park or an existing park that has a sculpture garden.
41. I think triangle park library could use a mural.
42. Before the pier by the stairs
43. NO!!!!
44. PCH
45. It would depend on what the art was. Generally my vote would be The Pier area, Downtown, Triangle Park, Central Park in that order.
46. Somewhere Alongside PCH
47. 5th & PCH
48. None - spend funds elsewhere
49. smaller neighborhood parks that engage actual HB residents.
50. Pier Plaza
51. Don't we have that with the naked surfer?
52. Civic Center
53. Along the beach
54. The Naked Surfer at the entrance of the Pier and PCH.
55. PCH Bluffs.
56. Would like to see large mural on that back wall of Armstrong Nursery Center next to the Children's Tot Lot.
57. at the end of Beach and PCH.
58. On Beach and Edinger
59. along dog beach walkway
60. North or South Entry to HB near PCH
61. Huntington Harbor Marina
62. bring back the PCH/Main St arches
63. None of the above. Too ostentatious
64. On the grounds of the Bolsa Chica center located on PCH and Warner.
65. Central Park

66. We already have the ocean, natural art
67. NO PLACE We don't need some large art piece in the city.
68. NO more!
69. Somewhere on Beach Blvd as it approaches the beach. I think a lot of people access HB that way, and its still pretty open to the sky.
70. NONE--I think our local art is already there-- the ocean. That's what attracts people to HB. Don't ruin it by trying to compete with nature. And the grammar is "if there WERE", it's a subjunctive tense reflecting possibility.
71. Park along PCH and 10th
72. Never
73. City hall if at all
74. plaza, but depends what it is, of course
75. No
76. the old rodgers senior center
77. The area before you walk onto pier
- 78.
79. Midtown - Warner/Beach area
80. none
81. somewhere along the beach path near main street
82. inside library
83. Near the wetlands, however I wouldn't want to disturb the wildlife. Or pacific city.
84. Kinetic art along the bluff at PCH
85. Main Thoroughfare entrance to Huntington Beach such as Beach Blvd., Main Street by 5 points, by Civic Center, PCH
86. At the beach.
87. Beach

1. Art Center

2. more distribution throughout the city; much of what we have is behind gates and unavailable to general public; we have a large expanse of city beyond downtown which gets short shrift - please consider all of the city

3. Beach promenade 9th- Goldenwest St

4. Public art within homeless shelter or low cost housing

5. In front of the HB Art Center!

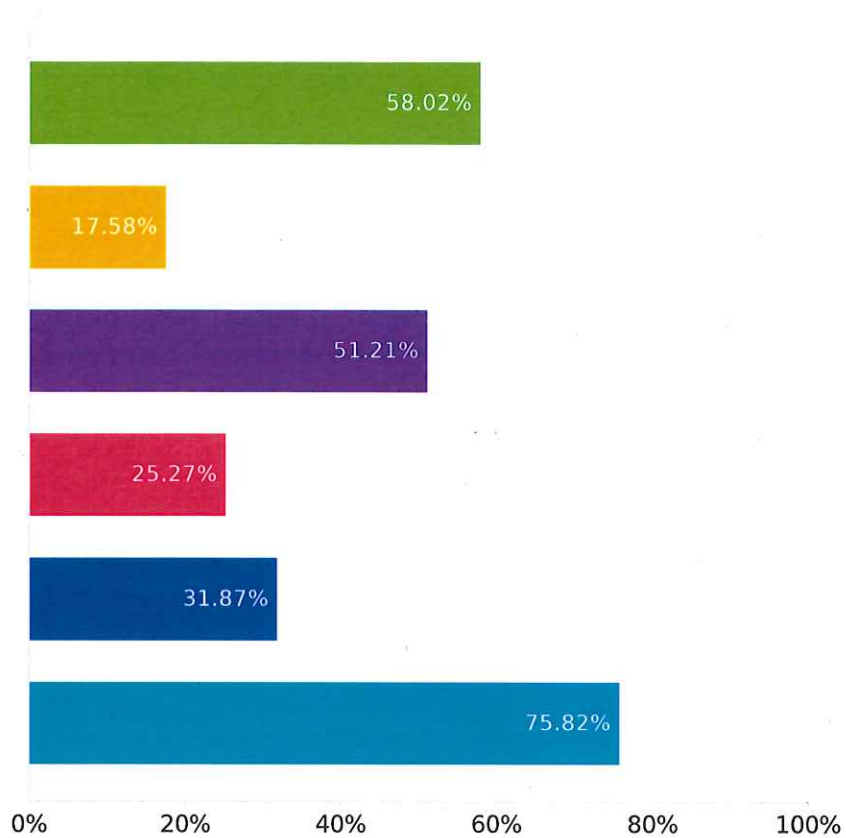

6. North HB: Bella Terra, GoldenWest College

7. Subdivision walls along Yorktown and busy streets
8. Along the beach but not in a congested area. I like how they put the surfer statue in front of parking lots by Beach & PCH. One work of art there. Maybe go to another beach parking lot and dress up that one! And then the next parking lot
9. downtown planters maybe , as they look outdated drab red tile , maybe some mosaic of water or statues
10. Thank you for doing this survey & for keeping art in our world!
11. HB beaches
12. The creation of an Artist District in one of our dying malls or centers.
13. Everywhere! Art makes everything better!
14. see above
15. performance art of various kinds
16. On entering and leaving Huntington Beach
17. no where
18. The beach walk areas between Seapoint and Beach.
19. City should be open to artist's ideas. Maybe on the cliffs, maybe there is something around various parts of the city. I would want the city to think bigger!
20. Nowhere.
21. North Huntington Beach!
22. City Hall
23. Pop up free library
24. I wish public art was displayed everywhere I go in HB
25. I would be happy to see artwork in any of these areas.
26. Who is paying for this??
27. Creative, smaller-scale art can be placed in unexpected places in the community
28. Theater - we lost the HB Playhouse.
29. By our library & Senior Center
30. away from potential distraction of drivers!!
31. I like having public art in places like Bolsa Chica if it does not interfere with the goal of this wetlands and fits with the natural context.
32. STOP
33. Civic Center
34. Entrance to City Beach on Beach Blvd.
35. Every public bench could be theoretically be a piece of art work, these cement benches have always shocked me
36. Santa Ana River Trail and all along the beach
37. mural on the new large wall at the Edison plant
38. Between or at Lifeguard Towers
39. Bike path along beach, Bolsa Chica Trail
40. A few simple classic pieces is all that is needed
41. Government Entities
42. an area where all can see, or attract people to go there
43. the old Rodger's Senior Center

44. How about in galleries. Keep it off the buildings and such. We don't need large statues or or anything else either.
45. NONE of the above
46. Art needs to be everywhere
47. Only place in these places if tasteful and not hodge-podge. Keep theme unified and somewhat similar if put on streets, as you do with the Welcome to HB signs. It shouldn't be distracting but blend into the environment.
48. Must have enough parking to enjoy the experience
49. City hall if at all
50. Everywhere. I'd like to see it all over.
51. Everywhere!!!
52. Beach path
53. definitely not trails, keep those natural!
54. Bike trail at the beach
55. Along the walking/biking trail from beach Blvd to sea point
