CIVIC AND/OR SERVICE MEMBERSHIPS

I serve as staff member of Secretary and Special Event Development on the board for a non-profit humanitarian organization for underprivileged children called Rosa Thay Nguyen Foundation.

CIVIC INTERESTS

I find it very rewarding to work and serve the people of the city I reside in. I have been a homeowner in the City of Huntington Beach since 2010 and my motivation and pride to serve the demographics no matter how small the assignment will be monumental to me. I plan to bring my knowledge, expertise, experience, and professional judgment to collaboratively resolve issues that come up within the Personnel Commission. I also have relatedness to serve the Commission as I am also a public employee for a Special District that has familiarized me with the process of reviewing job classifications, MOUs, employee-employer resolution process, grievance and impasse matters, as well as the city government structure that employees follow.

HOW WILL YOUR QUALIFICATIONS BEST SERVE THE NEEDS OF THE COMMUNITY?

This position requires non-partisan collaboration as well as being unbiased and impartial to decision making. To be fair and just is what will best serve all parties involved with personnel matters. By upholding to these ethics and values is where I feel I will best serve the employees of City of Huntington Beach and the City Council.

WHY DO YOU WISH TO SERVE ON A VOLUNTEER CITIZEN'S BODY?

I appreciate the Veterans of this great Country and City of Huntington Beach and my sister who is a Major in the Air Force all have sacrificed so much for the residents of Huntington Beach. I believe in civic duty such as serving on the Jury at the Orange County Superior Court and I am wanting to actively seek ways to engage in similar civic matters. I am wholeheartedly proud that I have chosen City of Huntington Beach to set my roots.
