2. The Police Department's Temporary Use of Rodgers Seniors' Center Site - The Huntington Beach Police Department will make a presentation regarding the temporary use of the Rodgers Seniors' Center site during the PD's modernization project. The Special Interest Committee met on Thursday, August 15, 2019, to receive public input on this topic.

1.) To make recommendation to City Council to consider the temporary use of the Recreation Center building and Seniors Outreach building by the Huntington Beach Police Department for non-visitor serving functions during the Police Department Headquarters modernization project.

2.) Recommend that staff also work with the Police Department and the American Legion Post 133 to identify alternative options and/or locations for their meetings and activities during this temporary use by the Police Department.

3.) Alternative Action: Do not approve the recommended actions and direct staff on how to proceed.
